

Emmaus House

320 M.A.C. Ave., East Lansing, Mich., (directly across the street from St. John Chapel and Student Center).

The household consists of college age women studying at Michigan State University or Lansing Community College with an openness and desire to discern what vocation God may be calling them to and how to journey to get there. The house offers community living (up to five women), formation opportunities to grow in discerning a vocation, community prayer and parish involvement.

Emmaus Journey

Women on a journey with the Lord, open to his call and revelation as were the men walking and learning from Jesus on the Road to Emmaus; Women with hearts eager to seek and discern the Lord's will for their lives and community.

Accommodations of the House

Private bedroom, shared bathrooms, Internet, cable, living room, full kitchen and chapel.

Requirements

- Weekly community meals (1-2)
- Formation events (2-3 a month)
- Attendance of two retreats a year (one being the Diocesan Women's Discernment Retreat)
- Conformity with house rules
- Participation in house Masses
- Participation in house prayer
- Parish involvement at St. John Church and Student Center

Women who desire to grow into a deeper understanding of who they are and to grow in holiness in Catholic community will find a home here.

For more information and to apply contact:

Dawn Hausmann

Director of Consecrated Vocations

517.342.2506

email: dhausmann@dioceseoflansing.org

For further details, visit the website of the Diocese of Lansing: www.dioceseoflansing.org

