

Come and See Weekend— Sacred Heart Major Seminary, Detroit

We would like to invite you to make a visit to Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit for a “Come and See” weekend during this academic year. These weekends are set up for men who would just like to come and see what life is like in the seminary. You will also meet some of the seminarians from Diocese of Lansing and many other dioceses that utilize SHMS for training their priestly candidates. The weekends begin on Thursday night and end on Sunday morning and are really good opportunities to help make a better discernment as to whether you may or may not be called to study for the priesthood.

Dates : February 15-18, 2018
